The table below shows a summary of the total stock owned by Bristol City Council and our partner Housing Associations in each area, and the number of properties that became available in the period 1 April 2009 - 31 March 2010. It also shows the number of direct offers that were made.

A direct offer is where the landlord has offered a vacant property directly to the applicant, without the applicant having to bid for the property. Direct offers are only made in certain circumstances.
